1. [REDACTED]

25X1 In discussing the status, [REDACTED] revealed that 25X1 with [REDACTED] employees allotted in fiscal year 1963 budget and without 25X1 forecasting any new Agency communications requirements, it will 25X1 require [REDACTED] Commo personnel and an additional [REDACTED] in 25X1 operational costs in fiscal year 1964 to accommodate [REDACTED]
25X1 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] feels that either the personnel ceiling must be exceeded and that we get additional funds [REDACTED] or that we continue only what support we now perform in order to stay within the present ceiling and budget. Various plans for solving the personnel/budget problems were discussed, and General Carter mellowed the urgency by indicating that he does not anticipate a great problem in its resolution.

3. Early Retirement

Action for an early retirement bill similar to the Foreign Service early retirement (20 years service at age 50) was discussed by Mr. Warner in its relationship to amendment of the Agency's Public Law 110. The DCI took up the subject with Congressman Vinson on this very morning who suggested that the Agency submit the amendment soon and that his Committee would "take a hard look at it." It was also announced that the DCI would brief the Killian Committee and also see Senator Russell concerning this subject on August 1. A task force headed by Warner was appointed to follow through on this action. Members are to include representatives from DD/P and DD/I and also Messrs. Bross, Echols and
